LIBRARY SERVICE MAY BE CURTAILED TO NON-RESIDENTS

Financial Situation Revealed in Report to Council; Funds Are Needed

FEE MAY BE PROVIDED

Local Institution Draws From Outlying Territory and Burden Is Heavy

Curtailment of its activities faces the Upland library unless public spirited citizens donate to the institution or a system of charging non-resident patrons is adopted.

Such was the situation presented to the city councilmen last night when a special committee reported on the finances.

Upland's library tax of 27 cents on each $100 valuation is the highest of any city in the citrus belt, it was revealed by William Atchley and A. H. Johnson, members of the committee.

Serving Many

"It seems that we are working on the order of a community or county library, serving many communities outside of our own city, also a portion of Ontario," the committee said in its report. "This being the case it might be well to solicit some county aid. By rendering this service to outside communities, a heavy burden is placed upon the taxpayers of our small city, and if this service is to be extended or continued we recommend that a small service charge be asked of all families using our library who do not live within the city limits."

The report was placed on file and it is expected the matter will be up for discussion later. The report was made when a request was recently filed for additional funds.

Tax Rate Compared

Library tax rate was obtained from 16 cities and varied from 27 cents per $100 valuation in Upland to 3 cents in Filmore. Average rate in the 16 cities was 14 cents.

"If the city council and the taxpayers at large feel that these improvements are badly needed, we would recommend to the board and management to make an appeal to the citizens of our community at large for public donations for these needed improvements. We are told that Ontario has adopted this plan and now has in its treasury about $7000.

"We also find the turnover of business and books per month in our library is just about twice that of any of our sister cities of equal size.

"We are pleased to report that the Upland library is preferred by the general public to those of our neighboring cities and that it is the opinion of many we have a better library and are giving better service to our community. This makes our library a popular center for the citizens of this district."

Following the reading of the report by Ernest C. Mehl, city clerk, discussion among the officials stressed the service given by the library to the outside communities and thus placing an extra large burden on local taxpayers.

31 Persons Used in Handling Speeding Case in Jury Trial

Thirty-one persons were involved for nearly a day this week disposing of a speeding case.

L. K. Rosenberger, Los Angeles, with his attorney, appeared before Judge George R. Crane. Twenty persons had been summoned, from which 12 were to be selected as jurors.

With the Los Angeles attorney using all the legal rights possible, the 20 persons were not enough, so six more persons were summoned.

Edward E. Gray, city attorney, prosecuted the case. C. S. Lehman, traffic officer, testified. Rosenberger was given a fine of $50.

On the jury hearing the case were Mrs. Eva L. Alford, Mrs. Julia J. Cutler, A. Harvey Wenger, Mrs. Isabelle Wisely, Mrs. Elsie Larkin, Mrs. Isabelle Brown, Mrs. Effie Swoap, Francis J. Hill, J. B. Perschbacher, Glenn M. Atwood, W. C. Cline, and Reid B. Bordwell.

Birthday Cake Will Be Cut Tomorrow In Annual Celebration

Time passes and at this period in February every year Mac, The Medicine Man., Inc., drug store, and P. H. McQuillen unite in celebrating birthday anniversaries.

And cake is passed. So tomorrow has been designated as the day when the annual birthday cake at the local store is cut, in honor of the anniversary of the man behind the institution, who is also mayor of the city, and the founding of the Rexall drug stores.

While Mr. McQuillen is today recovering from an illness, he expects to be able to personally greet his friends tomorrow.

For years the birthday cake has been cut and is looked forward to by many in the community.

LARGE AUDIENCES ASSURED PINAFORE

Only Few Seats Now Available For Big Chaffey Event Tonight and Tomorrow

It has been a long time since an event at the Chaffey institutions attracted as much attention as "H. M. S. Pinafore," the great musical show to be presented in the auditorium tonight and tomorrow night. The very best talent in the institutions, under the direction of that master, S. Earle Blakeslee, is in readiness—and never has a cast been better prepared than the one to produce this attraction. A matinee performance was given to a large audience of junior high school students yesterday afternoon and the way in which this musical comedy was put on at that time gives assurance of two great entertainments for the crowds tonight and Saturday night. There are now very few seats left and you should reserve yours at once to be sure of securing one. They are on sale at Mac's drug store.

The best speaking and singing talent at Chaffey compose the cast and there are included a number of choruses and dances. Special costumes for the presentation have been secured from Los Angeles, insuring correctness in every detail.

Camp Baldy Forester Fits Truck With Fire Fighting Equipment

CAMP BALDY, Feb. 20—Camp Baldy gets the first of the three new fire trucks fitted out with the latest fire fighting equipment. This invention was made by Warren Murphy, junior forester. To the Moreland truck he added pump, tank and other necessities which prove to be far superior to anything in this line the government has had. For the past few days Angeles forest officials, N. E. Petersen, district ranger, Glendora; Harold Ames, Assistant district ranger Glendora; Warren Murphy, junior forester, Pasadena; M. Davis, fire chief of Angeles forest, from the Pasadena office, and Bruce Coulter, district ranger of Arroyo Seco, have been assisting Ranger E. T. McLure in testing the new engine as to speed, power and capacity. These tests were made at various fire stations along the stream and at the plunge near the hotel. Ranger McLure is appointed as regular driver and H. Allison, T. Adams and Al Pruitt as emergency drivers. Local men are organizing a volunteer fire department to cooperate with the Forest Service.

The rainfall for Camp Baldy is sixteen inches.

Notices have been posted for the coming trustee election in the Chaffey district and Camp Baldy. Russel Holland will be inspector and Mrs. T. Adams and Mrs. F. R. Quintaval will act as judges.

The Edison Co. has extended its line to the farthest cabin in Bear canyon which is about one and one-half miles up.

CHECK WRITER IN FLEECY DEAL HERE GETS GOODS, CASH

Eight $20 Checks Passed by Man, Who Is Object of Intensive Search

SUSPECTS INTERVIEWED

Upland, Ontario Firms Victims of Suave Mannered Youth, Is Report

His suave manner in approaching Upland and Ontario merchants and his ability to produce an air that resulted in the merchants placing their confidence in him netted a neat sum for some man, described in police circles as a specialist in the art of issuing checks that were no good.

Checks totaling $180 are reported to have been written by a man who is today the object of an intensive police search, but who as yet has been just as clever in covering up his tracks as he was in obtaining the cold cash from his victims.

Several suspects have been under close scrutiny by the police and last night a man police thought was implicated in the fictitious check-writing business was questioned by authorities and observed by merchants who had been fleeced. He was given his freedom, however, when no guilt could be placed on him.

As related by J. F. Sawyer, chief of police, the man first made his appearance in Upland stores Friday and then returned Tuesday. In at least two cases, the man made a second appearance in stores, failing in one case both times to pass a check and in the other case making a purchase and issuing a check which was found to be worthless.

Six checks are reported to have been issued in Upland and three in Ontario.

It was his custom to enter a store, examine merchandise as would any good customer, and after making a selection write a check for $20. In some cases he ordered purchases, wrote the check—always for $20—received the change and said he would be back to get his goods.

All the checks here were written on the First National bank of Upland. At least eight names were forged.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Paul Baird motored to Los Angeles on Tuesday when they combined business with pleasure.

Check on Speed of Trains in City Is To Be in Ordinance

Placing a restriction on the speed of Pacific Electric trains through the city, first reading was given to a proposed ordinance at the city council meeting last night.

The measure was prepared by Edward E. Gray, city attorney.

Speed of not more than 20 miles any place in the city and 10 miles from the western boundary of Euclid avenue to the eastern boundary of Third avenue is specified in the document, which will be presented for vote in two weeks.

Chaffey Board to Plan Soon For Erection of Second Jaysee Unit

With the first unit of the Chaffey junior college building ready for occupancy within a month, plans for the construction of the second unit of the building will be considered at the next meeting of the Chaffey board of education, it was announced today.

Various department heads have been notified to prepare to move to the new unit on either March 14 or March 21.

Financial situation in the district will be discussed by the board at its March meeting. Construction of the present unit is reported to have been well in keeping with the amount created by tax for that purpose.

The first unit is to be the rear portion of the completed Chaffey structure. The second unit will be built on the east of the first unit and form the Euclid avenue front of the educational structure.

The board's pay-as-you-go plan of building has apparently met with approval and indications are that the new unit may be built within the near future.

Coit Coolidge, a Stanford graduate, and now assistant director of the University club library at New York, will become librarian of the Harwood library in the new Chaffey unit.

This was the announcement of Dr. Merton E. Hill, principal, who said the new librarian would assume his duties April 1.

EARL JOHNSON NEW CHAMBER DIRECTOR

Clyde DuVall Resigns and Citrus Manager Is Appointed

Earl H. Johnson is today a director of the chamber of commerce.

On the resignation of Clyde. D. DuVall, who was elected a director at the annual meeting, Mr. Johnson was selected by the other directors on the board to fill the vacancy. Mr. DuVall, who is a member of the Upland board of education, said he could not devote the proper time to the civic work to serve on the board as a director, although he pledged his support as an active member of the organization.

Mr. Johnson is manager of the Mt. View Fruit association and has always taken an active part in community affairs.

C. H. Creighton and Mrs. D. O. Creighton and two children of Taft are spending several days as guests of Mrs. Creighton's mother, Mrs. Laycock, on G street.

RAIN TOTAL GIVEN SLIGHT INCREASE

11.37 Inches Record of Season as Storm Adds .04 Inch on 22nd Street

Rainfall in Upland yesterday was .04 of an inch.

At least that was the official record as obtained by J. R. Johnston, weather observer on West Twenty-second street, but in the residential district and south of the city the precipitation is reported to be much more.

This addition places the total for the city at 11.37 inches, as compared with 8.35 inches at this time a year ago.

Mrs. Winnie McCullough is at the San Antonio Community hospital today suffering from a fracture of the left arm near the shoulder joint.

Tripping over an electric cord leading to a device, she fell last night while at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. V. Sleuman. Taken to the hospital, the fracture was set and she is reported to be resting as well as could be expected.

ANNEXATION VOTE WILL BE MARCH 28

City Council Prepares to Call Lemon Heights Election For Next Month

March 28 is the tentative date for the voters in the Lemon Heights district to vote on the question of annexation to Upland.

The city council set the date at its meeting last night as the first legal step in calling the election. Votes will be cast at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Bradley, Mountain avenue and Fourteenth street.

Edward E. Gray, city attorney, was instructed to proceed with the notices calling the election, selection of election officials and make other preparations for the annexation election.

This is the first election of its kind held in Upland for years and indications point to the Lemon Heights people voting to join the city, primarily for the purpose of obtaining domestic water.

WM. L. KEOWN IS SERIOUSLY HURT

Upland Man in Cast as Result of Fall While in the Mountains

As the result of serious injuries received while aiding with county road work in the San Bernardino mountains, Wm. L. Keown of 694 East Ninth street, is in the General hospital at San Bernardino and his condition is reported to be critical.

Only meager details of the accident are known, Mrs. Keown having been called to San Bernardino Tuesday and she has remained with her husband practically all the time since.

Mr. Keown was employed with the county road crew and it is said he fell a considerable distance down the mountain side while at work. The report received here stated that he sustained six broken ribs, fracture of one arm and a serious fracture of a vertebra in the spine. He was placed in a cast yesterday and Mrs. Keown expects to remain with him for a few days during the critical period.

Month's Wedded Life Results In Duncanson Asking For Divorce

Married a few days more than a month, M. H. Duncanson is today suing his wife for divorce.

Things moved fast after the local citrus grower met the Spanish woman and within a few days the couple were married at Las Vegas, N. Mexico. Mrs. Duncanson is now residing at Mountain avenue and Fourteenth street while Mr. Duncanson is living with his sister on Fourteenth street, between San Antonio and Mountain avenues.

Reached by telephone last night, Mr. Duncanson talked reluctantly of the affair. He told of the marriage date, Jan. 21, and that Grant Holcomb, San Bernardino, had been engaged as the attorney.

Not only has Mr. Duncanson refused to live with his wife, but also to support her, only at the insistence of police, it is reported by officials. Officers were called by Mrs. Duncanson on two occasions, once when she said she had no money or food, and another time when she was confined to her bed with illness.

Mrs. Duncanson is an attractive Spanish woman unable to talk much English. She is reported to be the mother of four children.

Details of a speedy romance and a similar brief wedded life are contained in the notice of the divorce proceedings, which were issued to Mrs. Duncanson this week by C. S. Lehman, local policeman.

Date for the divorce hearing in Superior court has not as yet been set.

Mr. Duncan owns property on West Fourteenth street and has lived here for several years.

$96,902 PAID TO CITRUS EMPLOYES SINCE JANUARY 1

10 Associations in Territory Report Peak Is Yet to Come in Activity

HUGE SUM DISTRIBUTED

Conditions Normal Here For Those Handling Record Citrus Crop

Salaries and pay roll received by workers in this citrus district since Jan. 1 from the 10 fruit associations today totaled approximately $96,902, it was revealed in a survey conducted this week.

This means that during the first six weeks of 1931, the several hundred persons employed in the citrus industry have received as much or more money than during the same period a year ago.

Several of the associations have just started to pick and pack fruit in quantity lots and the peak is still sometime away. The payroll total for the next six weeks is expected to be from 25 to 40 per cent higher than was received here during the first part of last year.

For residents of this citrus district, conditions are normal and many are working today who were not employed a year ago. One rule followed strictly as far as possible is that association officials give employment only to local people. This plan has been followed more rigidly this year than ever, with the result that in Upland there are few persons experienced in citrus fruit handling, who are not receiving checks twice a month.

Pay days with most of the associations are about the fifth and twentieth of each month. Associations cooperating in providing this total payroll are those in Upland, Alta Loma, Cucamonga and Etiwanda.

Due to the activity here, Upland and other sections in the citrus territory are looked upon as one of the most prosperous at present of any in the county. While other places have unemployment problems, the local citrus industry has provided a source of work and income for many people here.

Officials pointed out, however, that enough people are here at present to handle the crop and announcement of these payroll figures is not to be taken that transcients can obtain work here.

LOCAL MEN HEAR OF GOLD STRIKE

Dr. O. A. Thompson Goes to Inspect Ingraham Mine Near Placerville

Having received word of the striking of what promises to be a rich vein of gold, Dr. O. A. Thompson, president of the Ingraham Mining company, left today for the company's mine near Placerville, about 45 miles north-east of Sacramento.

The company has been operating a small mill for some time, but if the new vein proves to be what prospects indicate, increased facilities will be needed. The first run on the new strike will be made tomorrow and Dr. Thompson plans to be present.

There are about 75 stockholders of the Ingraham Mining company in this district, many of them being in Upland, and developments are awaited with the keenest interest.

Dr. Thompson expects to be in the north for several days.

Atchley May Keep Place On Council; Resignation Filed

Even though William Atchley submitted his resignation as a member of the city council last night, he is today still a member of the governing board.

His resignation was taken under advisement. While it was the wish of Mr. Atchley that it be accepted as of April 1, his fellow officials discussed ways and means whereby he might still retain his place on the group even though he plans to make his home in Ontario.

It was pointed out that even though his residential property will be in Ontario, he will continue to do business in Upland and will be concerned about Upland as much as ever.

The matter of his resignation will be considered at a later meeting of the group.

CARS TURN OVER; DRIVERS ESCAPE

Accident at Second Avenue and Tenth Street Close Call to Two

No one was injured and in that fact lies the wonder of an accident in which two machines figuring in the crash, were turned over and damaged, early this morning.

Harry F. Davis, 533 Second avenue, was reported to be returning from Los Angeles, driving north on Second avenue when he collided with the car driven by Miss Cornelia Merry, Chino, going east on Tenth street.

The crash occurred at the intersection. A few minutes of turning the machines upright was all it took to clear the remains and C. S. Lehman, traffic officer, took a few facts, and closed the incident.

SPELLING CONTEST WILL BE ACTIVITY FOR PUPILS SOON

Plans Announced For Annual Event Sponsored by The Upland News

GRAND FINAL IS PLANNED

Students in All Schools as Far East as Etiwanda To Compete

Furthering the interest in correct spelling among the school children of the district, plans were announced today for the second annual Upland News spelling contest.

Providing an incentive for hundreds of children in Upland, Alta Loma, Cucamonga and Etiwanda to learn to spell in public, The Upland News, with the cooperation of the teachers and various organizations will sponsor contests in grades from the fourth to the eighth.

A grand final spelling contest will be held, open to the best spellers in the nine schools of the district. Winner of this contest will be given two round-trip tickets to Catalina Island, the pleasure resort off the coast of Los Angeles. This reward is made possible through the cooperation of the Pacific Electric and the Wilmington Transportation company.

As was the case a year ago, when The Upland News first conducted the spelling contes teams will be selected in each of the grades and spelling matches held between the same grades of the various schools.

Teams of four spellers will be selected in each grade. Starting with the fourth grade teams, the contests will be held up through the grades until the eighth grade teams of the district meet in the final contest.

Following this contest, the grand final event will be held and any student who has spelled in any of the preceding contests will be eligible to enter and compete for the Catalina Island outing.

Spelling books used regularly in the classes will be used in the spelling contests. Definite rules for the holding of the contests have been prepared and will be received by all the teachers in the district early next week. All students who want to enter the contest are to enroll for the competition.

Each teacher will then conduct a contest or "tryouts" in her grade to determine members of the team. Arrangements will then be made for the first contest which will be held with the fourth grade teams competing. The fifth grade teams will then compete, followed by the sixth, seventh and eighth grade contests.

The first spelling match between the fourth grade teams is expected to be held within a few weeks.

In the contests, The Upland News can only supervise the arrangements while the actual work is done by the teachers. Before plans for the 1931 contest were made, many of the teachers and principals were interviewed and on their declaration that the effort was worthwhile and resulted in an increased interest in spelling among the students, The Upland News prepared to sponsor the second event.

The Upland News recognizes the vital part in the event the teachers play and at the beginning takes this opportunity to pay its respects to the faithful members of the educational organization.

More plans concerning the contest will be announced later, and in the meantime, definite arrangements will be made for the contest among the fourth grade teams.

Patriotic Program Will Be Tonight

In the Upland junior high school tonight, students will present an impressive patriotic program, featuring the history of the flag and the early activities of this country.

A flag drill, songs and orchestra selections are included in the plans for the program, which will start at 8 o'clock. Proceeds from the entertainment will be used by the class in school and class activities.

Has Done No Good—But Ruined Millions

According to a statement of a well known Los Angeles physician, "alcohol has never been known to do any man good, but has ruined millions." The idea seems to prevail that because alcohol makes a person to seem lively and talk more easily it is a stimulant. Such is not the case. Alcohol being a narcotic, produces a seemingly stimulating effect by paralyzing the brain centers and causes a person to say and do things that when he is in his right mind he would not say or do.

The results of alcohol use are well known, yet there are many who will not benefit by the horrible examples which are seen. It demoralizes the human system—causes the walls of the blood vessels to become weak and then apoplexy results with the bursting of the blood vessels in the brain..... It also with the bursting of the blood vessels in the brain. It also fat, ruins the liver, and keeps the kidneys from functioning properly. We read that many a liver is swollen to twice its normal size and changed from a healthy compact mass of energetic cells to tubes and cells loaded with fat. In other cases it shrivels the liver, and this also produces a condition where it can no longer do its work and the victim dies, as this keeps it from ridding the body of various kinds of waste. Medical science states that even those who use beer mildly are repeatedly found to have liver trouble.

An eminent Chicago authority says: "I don't know, at the present time, of a single indication for the use of alcohol as a medicine. I know of no disease that can be treated as successfully with alcohol as without. Every doctor knows alcohol is not a stimulant but, in reality, a depressant." Yet in the face of such statements as these from those who know what they are talking about there are those who still claim alcohol is helpful and beneficial. It may alleviate your pains and troubles for a short time, but the lasting effect is one of injury to the system. It is also said that year by year the use of alcohol in any form, for the cure of tuberculosis, pneumonia, malaria, blood poisoning and other maladies is being discarded as both ineffectual and dangerous. Reputable physicians are discontinuing its use every year.

The deadly effects of the "hootch" sold today contains alcohol in its worst form. In thousands of instances its use causes paralysis almost instantaneously and many deaths also result. It may be difficult to get the "old soak" to stop drinking the stuff, but it should be a sufficiently horrible example and warning to the youth to let the filthy stuff alone.

The return of another movie star to Hollywood and the resultant news that she and her husband have come to the parting of the ways seems to emphasize the fact that marriage is not taken very seriously by many of the folks in the movie colony. Of course there are other people who do not appear to think marriage is a very sacred thing, but the percentage of such is much greater among those engaged in the movie profession. In fact, sometimes it looks as though a matter of trading wives and husbands in the movie capital—or off with the old and on with the new. A lot of those pictures produced also seem to reflect the lives led by those producing them. The movies produce a lot of get-rich-quick people, but also makes fools of a lot of them and ruins their better moral nature—if they ever had any. What a wonderful opportunity those movie folks have of setting a fine example for others to follow—and how few of them ever take advantage of that opportunity. It is too bad that so many of the young people are permitted to see some of the pictures produced—just at a time when their character is being formed and when they need proper influences.

Here's the latest, folks—and we'll all want to get one on the old family bus. An Englishman is said to have invented an automobile horn with a microphone on the steering wheel. Its use will no doubt spread at a rapid rate, for we all want to tell the punk drivers "where to head in." Think what satisfaction it will be to broadcast to the road hog in front of you what you think of him! Still the thing has its drawbacks. For instance, what a conglomeration of shouts and cuss words would fill the air at crowded intersections when each got to giving orders to someone else! There would be some terrible arguments—and the results might be fatal in some instances.

One of the things we are glad to see being eliminated from the talkies somewhat is the theme song. Really—that's quite a relief. But the radio took up the theme song craze and have been overdoing it for some time. Practically every radio broadcast now has a theme song—sometimes it's sung and sometimes it's played. Tooth paste, sox or what not—the theme song precedes the program and sometimes follows after it also. Wouldn't it be appropriate at this time for all radio fans to offer up a prayer for relief from the theme song?

A Matter of Mathematics

Beverly Hills Citizen: Falling stocks, cancelled interest, reduced bonds and all the other surprises of finance in the past few months must be awakening investors to the sad fact that modern riches are not so much a matter of wealth as of mathematics. Digits multiplied by thousands cannot feed the hungry; it takes wheat multiplied by yeast to do that. There's your honest-to-goodness wealth. So if we could only throw away our pencils and paper and get to counting actual wealth a new normalcy would result which would benefit all.

The Wrong Name

La Mesa Scout: "Prohibition liquor is fatal to three," is the headline in a wet paper, stating that three men in Los Angeles and San Francisco had been killed by drinking denatured alcohol. Why call it prohibition liquor? It wasn't prohibition liquor at all, but anti-prohibition liquor. The men obtained and drank it in violation of prohibition and were no doubt aided in their undertaking by those who also are in opposition to prohibition. Had all concerned done their duty and obeyed the law, there would have been no illicit boozing and no deaths. Why blame the law for that which is advocates and supporters tried to prevent and failed by reason of the activities of its opponents?

Sherman Was Right

Hemet News: Apropos of the demand for better moving pictures, it might be well to consider the lessons taught by the showing of "All Quiet on the Western Front."

There are few pretty things in this film, which was really the first to show graphically that war is all Sherman said it was and more. Before it was produced, most epics of the battlefield were strong on glory and weak on gore. Boys saw them and longed for what they thought was the Great Adventure.

Most veterans will tell you that "All Quiet" did not exaggerate. War is no longer an adventure. It's a sordid, messy slaughter in which personal courage and strength play small parts. Our future statesmen may be benefited by seeing such realism on the screen.

Upland Woman Adds Odd Angle To Story of Washington's Army

When Mistress Farrand rode through the New Jersey countryside in a jogging ox-cart, knitting socks for General Washington's bare-foot soldiers as she went, little did she dream that her history-making industry would win for Mrs. Mary Baldwin of San Antonio Heights a $5000 lot on Twenty-fifth street.

In 1917 Mrs. Baldwin discovered in a copy of the "old home town," New Jersey, newspaper a lengthy poem, a very lengthy poem, setting forth in nicely rhymed lines historical facts that revealed the dramatic story of Mistress Ferrand's patriotic deed.

The poem told of the heroic struggles of the great Washington to keep his army intact during the rigid winter of 1780-81, at Fort Morristown, New Jersey. The soldiers were practically barefooted. There were but few shoes and not a sock in the army, according to a despairing letter written by Lieutenant Ferrand to Goodwife Ferrand.

Now Mistress Ferrand was resourceful. Gathering up her supply of hand-made yarn spun from home-grown wool she climbed into her ox-cart and began to knit. With her son Dan driving she rode from neighbor to neighbor knitting and talking socks. Other women set to knitting. Within a few days Mistress Ferrand appeared at Washington's camp with 133 pairs of warm socks.

Mrs. Baldwin liked the poem and she also was interested because Lieutenant Ferrand was an ancestor of her brother's wife. She expressed her intention to memorize the poem—all of two or three newspaper columns.

"You can't memorize all of that" said her husband.

"Bet you a dollar I can," replied Mrs. Baldwin, without any idea of really betting.

Remarking something to the effect that he was not exactly a betting character, but he would pay her $1,000 if she did memorize the poem, Mr. Baldwin forgot the matter.

A few weeks later Mrs. Baldwin reminded her husband of the conversation by repeating from memory the entire poem. The next day Mr. Baldwin presented her with a deed to the lot on Twenty-fifth street.

A few years later Mrs. Baldwin sold that lot for $5000.

Seen From a Chaffey Window

By One of the Faculty

"Nelson Gray brought joy to Coach Templeton's heart by putting the shot a distance of 48 feet 3 inches."

The brief quotation above from the San Francisco Call-Bulletin means little to the casual reader, but to the follower of track and field athletics it means a great deal.

Less than 20 years ago the National Intercollegiate Conference record was 47 feet ¼ inch, and Ralph Rose, who set that record in 1904, gained national fame for his performance.

In the Intercollegiate Amateur Athletic Association of America meets, the distance of 48 feet has been made but seven times in 50 years.

Nelson Gray, according to the clipping quoted, has bettered that distance in his sophomore year.

Gray is an Upland boy and a graduate of Chaffey Union high school. Under coaching of "Pop" Kegley he developed into the premier performer in the shotput in high schools of California. Now he is going ahead toward further laurels in Stanford university. Besides his athletic prowess, Gray is known among his associates as a keen student and a fine scout.

A group of the business men of the community have done much for track athletics at Chaffey in sponsoring annually the Chaffey Invitational meet. Hundreds of athletes attend the meet each year, and it is recognized as the best meet of its kind in the state.

The business men sporsoring the meet have provided the finest medals that are offered at any track meet in the state. The medals bear a replica of the Chaffey tower in bold relief against a background of orchards. Euclid avenue is shown leading the way to the mountains. They are very popular with the fortunate boys who win them.

April 18 is the date set for the Chaffey meet this year, and plans are well under way to make the 1931 meet the best ever held on Graber field.

And while on the subject of athletics, you might want to drive to Riverside Saturday night and see the Chaffey junior college basketball team in its championship game with the Riverside J. C. The boys are going strong, but will meet a splendid team on its own floor.

Best of all, there is room in the Riverside gym for 2000 spectators, so you are sure of a seat, if you go in time. The game is called for 8 o'clock Saturday night.

GOOD USED BOOKS WANTED FOR NAVY

Mrs. Manker Named by Red Cross to Collect Books For Philippine Library

Upland Chapter American Red Cross is asked, with other branches in California, to collect good used books for the enlisted men in Cavite navy yard in the Philippine Islands. The books in their library are worn out, and the supply is entirely inadequate to their needs.

The opportunities for healthful recreation for the men are very limited. It is fortunate that the men are interested in reading, and everything possible should be done to supply their library with good books, to help them pass pleasantly the leisure hours that are afforded them.

Following Christmas is a good time to give books, as many people do not care to keep them after they have finished reading the gift book.

Mrs. F. H. Manker, librarian, has been appointed by the local chapter to make this collection, and she will be most happy to call for any books that can be used for these enlisted men if it is impossible to send them to the library.

"Little Caesar," comes next Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Fannie Hershey and T. E. Ketcheson Surprise Friends

Admirably succeeding in their efforts to keep their wedding plans a secret, Miss Fannie Hershey of 1107 East Ninth street, and T. E. Ketcheson of 227 West Tenth street perpetrated a real surprise by slipping away Saturday and driving down to San Diego where they have friends—too far away to spread the news in Upland—and exchanging the vows that made them man and wife.

According to plans revealed only to Miss Hershey's nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Musser, the marriage ceremony was scheduled to take place Wednesday evening following prayer meeting at the San Diego Nazarene church. A wedding trip on to San Francisco and other northern points was included in the plans.

Although Mr. and Mrs. Musser had known of the nuptial plans for some time, they were true to their promise of secrecy and revealed the romance to unsuspecting friends only after the prospective bride and groom had made a successful departure.

Both Mr. Ketcheson and his bride have lived in Upland for many years, Mr. Ketcheson being a successful orange grower, and they have a host of friends here who are very much interested in their wedding and express sincere wishes for their happiness.

Los Serranos Chapter Hears Fine Address at Colonial Party

Quaint old-fashioned gowns and Colonial costumes formed an effective background for the Los Serranos chapter, D. A. R, Colonial party held at the clubhouse of the Woman's club, West B street, Ontario, Tuesday evening, February 17, in honor of the birthday of George Washington. Baskets of blue and white flowers, colors of the organization, comprised the decorative scheme.

Miss Ethel F. Leeke, regent, welcomed the guests, and Mrs. F. H. Wallihan read the prayer offered by Washington for his country.

Dean Charles J. Booth, of Chaffey high school, who is a descendant of Stephen Hopkins, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, gave a most interesting address on "Some Historic Shrines of Interest to Americans." Mr. Booth described the firing of the first shot at Concord Bridge and told much of interest regarding Concord and Lexington, and gave sketches of those great souls who had lived and died there: Ralph Waldo Emerson, Nathaniel Hawthorne, Louisa M. Olcott, and Henry David Thoreau.

In 1528, Mr. Booth said, the first Europeans settled in this country near San Antonio Texas, where the Alamo is the earliest historic shrine known. He recalled the everlasting debt of gratitude due the pioneers who broke the trail to the far West and finally rested at Donner Lake, and the tragic ending of this party. The hardships and suffering they endured was the price paid for the blessings enjoyed today in California.

Mrs. Villa Dunn Johnston briefly described the origin and use of the famous colonial wassail cup which was served by the hostesses. Mrs. Johnston was assisted by Mrs. Edna Crouse, Mr. H. E. Flum and Miss Lucile Majors.

Bethany Union Aid Holds Annual Meet in Riverside Home

One of the most enjoyable of the yearly pilgrimages to the home of Mrs. B. V. Cheek in Riverside was made recently by more than 20 members of the Bethany Union Ladies Aid society.

During the morning hours informal visiting was enjoyed and a valentine exchange box provided amusement until time for the arranging and serving of the abundant contributed dish luncheon.

The afternoon was spent socially and in enjoying a most delightful program.

Harking back to the days of sweet sixteen, candy hearts and lace valentines, the grownups indulged in a five-minute valentine writing contest, the reading of the "poems" creating much amusement.

To show that youthful sentiment is not forgotten a few of the verses are quoted. The first prize winner wrote: "With this sweet candy, you'll be a dandy; It may be a little sandy, nevertheless it is a valentine." Winning second prize was: "If you will be my own true love, I'll bring home the bacon to mine; we'll bill and coo, my turtle dove, and live in a rose covered valentine." A close third, one verse ran: "I am feeling in my heart, big, beautiful baby mine, the sharp prick of the dart from the bow of my valentine."

With this bit of humorous amusement over, the guests again contested in making valentines, and a number of delightful musical selections were given by Mrs. Cheek, her daughter, Dorothy, and Miss Frances Norton, piano, mandolin and guitar being used. Miss Cheek is a member of the Mission Inn orchestra, appearing daily in Spanish costume as a mandolin player. Miss Norton is also a member of the orchestra.

An impromptu program of talks, songs and readings followed, the feature number being a lengthy epic poem of Washington's days of struggle to maintain his Revolutionary army, read by Mrs. Mary Baldwin, the task of memorizing the long poem being a remarkable feat and the thrilling, historical story told being intensely interesting.

COUNTY MAY TAKE OVER FAIRGROUNDS

New Grandstand and Change in Administration Planned at Pomona

Plans for Los Angeles county to assume control of the fairgrounds at Pomona on a 20-year lease arrangement, and to construct a $250,000 grandstand, and to maintain the property as a county park as well as the site of the annual fair, are being considered by the L. A. county supervisors and the fair board members.

Such an arrangement would relieve the city of Pomona of payment amounting to $23,000 on land and the balance in bonds, voted in 1923 for the development of the fair. Legal steps in the transfer are being taken.

It is planned to open bids on the proposed grandstand about May 15, and to begin razing the old grandstand about the same time. Plans for the new grandstand call for a seating capacity of 10,300 persons, the structure being 425 feet by 143 feet and 78 feet high, or rising to an elevation of a building six stories high.

Better Still

A small boy, sitting next to a bright glow in the sky with the utmost delight.

"I am glad you admire the beauties of Nature, my son," said an old gentleman. "Isn't it a lovely sunset?"

"That's not a sunset," replied the boy with a grin. "That's our school on fire."

Small Increase in County Irrigation in Decade Reported

Preliminary figures of the 1930 San Bernardino county census of irrigation exhibit little change in the past decade. Results of last year's census, together with comparative information of the 1920 census have been released. A slight increase in acreage irrigated was shown in the county in 1929 over 1919.

The per cent of decrease shown in the figures for irrigable acreage in enterprises during 1930 was attributed to the fact that many Mojave homesteads were not being farmed during the period the census was taken due to the low prices prevailing for farm produce.

A 3.5 per cent increase was shown in acreage irrigated in the county by the 1929 census, with 108,958 acres under irrigation in 1929, and 105,306 in 1919.

WATER QUESTIONS ANSWERED TODAY

Metropolitan District Official Says City Would Be Treated Fairly

Describing the Metropolitan Water district organization as a "proposition of good faith", A. L. Gramm, executive secretary of the Metropolitan district, at noon today told members of the city's water advisory committee that the present agreements can be changed by the directors, but there is assurance that everything will be handled in a manner for the good of all concerned.

Asked if the present rate of $8 an acre foot for irrigation water could not be changed to a higher rate later, Mr. Gramm said that such was the case.

Mr. Gramm was emphatic in his assurance that Upland, if it joined the district, would be treated in a satisfactory manner. He explained that the water problem is one for all the southland and "Los Angeles has recognized it as such." Los Angeles has borne 82 per cent of the cost of the project and would be entitled to 186 votes, he said and explained that legal limitations premit it to have only 40 votes on the board of directors.

Members of the committee were asked to submit questions to be answered and most of the queries presented in writing dealt with the question of what guarantee there was that the present arrangements would not be changed in the future to the detriment of the smaller communities.

The official said that it is the policy of the board that a unanimous vote shall direct the affairs and that if everyone is not satisfied, arrangements are made to satisfy those opposing a plan.

Discussion also concerned the problem of non-member districts benefitting from the increased flow from the Colorado river, and of the feasibility of a large district, including cities and incorporated territory, joining as a unit.

Present at the meeting were Charles V Barr, G. A. Hanson, who is chairman, A. B. Whitney, F. W. Palmer, T. W. Nisbet, D. E. Thompson, T. R. Woodbridge, W. K Beattie and R. G. Manley.

Trees Favored as Names For Streets

Whether trees, Spanish names or names of Southern California pioneers will be adopted as names for Upland streets will be decided at the meeting of the city planning commission tonight.

Public expression favors the use of trees in naming local thoroughfares and the entire problem will be discussed at the commissioners meeting to solve the problem.

Six Persons Daily Killed by Autoists

An average of six persons a day was the death toll of automobiles in California last year, according to a report made public today by Victor W. Killick, statistician of the California highway patrol.

A total of 2,384 deaths during the year 1930 showed an increase of 6.2 per cent over the number of persons killed by automobiles during 1929, the report said. In automobile accidents a total of 41,237 persons were reported injured. The number of accidents in 1930 was 31,019 as compared to 26,921 accidents the previous year.

NEW LEGISLATIVE DISTRICT IS SEEN

Assemblyman Isaac Jones Tells of Proposed Measure; Tax Is Issue

Upland and the rest of the citrus territory will be placed in a new congressional district if a measure now before the state legislature is approved.

Assemblyman Isaac Jones from this district will leave over the weekend for Sacramento to be present at the re-convening of the legislative body on Tuesday.

He cited the re-districting of the state as one of the greatest problems before the group and pointed out the district now served by Phil D. Swing as congressional representative is likely to be affected.

The state is allowed nine new congressmen to represent California at Washington, and it is up to the state legislature to provide for the increased districts. If the proposed measure is approved, San Bernardino, Riverside and Orange counties will be in one district, which will be required to elect a representative at the 1932 balloting.

Mr. Jones looked with favor upon the tax measure proposed by C. E. Grier, chairman of the board of supervisors. The issue of giving the legislature more authority over tax matters is a vital one before the group and he cited the tax proposal as one around which there will be more discussion than others.

Mr. Jones submitted a state income tax bill before the legislative recess, and he is convinced that if it would be adopted the financial burden would be more equitably distributed.

His measure provides that all persons making income tax report to the federal government be required to send a duplicate of this report to the state, on which the state would figure the tax due.

The Jones income tax proposal would not exempt salaries of public officials as is the case now.

Beulah College

A full house listened to the gospel at the Midnight Mission in Los Angeles on Friday night, Feb. 13, when members of the gospel team fulfilled their regular monthly mission appointment at that place.

Elder Walter Bohen and Bro. John Racer were the speakers of the evening. Besides congregational singing, music was given by the Evangel ladies quartet, Misses Sarah Wolgemuth, Anna Brubaker, Leoda Smith, and Gladys Wolfinbarger.

Special singing was given by Beulah college groups at the revival services of the Brethren in Christ church at Chino during the past week; the senior trio on Thursday night, Feb. 12, and Miss Janna Goins on Saturday night.

He Liked It

Pete: "Last night when I got home my wife had my easy chair all ready, my slippers at hand, my newspaper and pipe——"

Recorder: "Er—how did you like her new hat?"

Wife (on a boating excursion): "If the boat foundered, whom would you save first, the children or me?"

Husband: "Me."

Founders' Day Service Held With Impressive Ceremony Featured

ETIWANDA, Feb. 20.—Founders' Day was celebrated with very impressive and appropriate ceremony at the regular monthly meeting of the Etiwanda Parent-Teacher association.

The lovely candle lighting service was held, the birthday cake which held the candles having been baked and presented by Mrs. E. L. Appel. All members present participated in this ceremony, past presidents of the association leading. Two piano solos were given by Shirley Shepherd, and a piano duet, "The Japanese Toyman," was given by David and Dorothy Donnelly. Miss Edna Brewer gave a reading, "The Voice of Our Beloved Founder."

Miss Eunice Mitchell, Girl Scout leader, gave a very interesting report on the work, reporting 16 scout members in the troop. Two very lovely notes of thanks were read from the primary grades and the fifth and sixth grades for the bowls of gold fish presented their rooms for their aid in bringing out new men to the Fathers' night program last month.

Following a business meeting, the P. T. A. adjourned to the domestic science room, where tea and cake were served.

INVESTIGATE Building and Loan!

Then You Will Buy!

Investigate and you will find the majority of modest residences are constructed with backing from some building and loan association. It is so easy for anyone to become a home owner, that every day thousands throughout the state are taking advantage of the opportunity.

Here in Upland, or any place in the citrus territory, the building and loan associations have been largely responsible for the easy financing of the residences. Payments like rent applied on a new house will before many years clear the property.

Cost of construction is far lower than a few years ago. An upward trend in costs is bound to follow soon. Action now looking toward a home of your own will save you rent money and give you that satisfaction of a home owner.

For 100 years, building and loan associations have been serving the public. Their efficiency in financing your building has been tested and today, the associations of this district, invite your serious consideration.

Pine Trees Are To Be Planted In San Antonio Canyon

300 SEEDLINGS TO BE RECEIVED HERE

Izaak Walton League Preparing to Put New Life in Burned-over Area

Spring hill in San Antonio canyon, which was burned off several years ago, will again see trees, as the result of efforts of the Old Baldy chapter Izaak Walton league.

Arrangements have been made to secure 300 pine trees, about 1 1-2 feet in length for planting on the site that was a scene of a disastrous brush and forest fire. Since then, barren land has been lying idle waiting for some civic or other organization to come along and give the ground new life.

Arthur Throop, Euclid avenue, is chairman of the committee in charge of the tree planting, but definite date for the planting is not known. The Los Angeles county forest department has assured the local official the trees can be obtained, but delnite arrangements to get the young seedlings have not been completed.

It is expected that the trees will be received here by next week-end, and there is a possibility of them coming in time for planting by the local group this week-end.

J. J. Atwoods Will Move to Newport

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Atwood have purchased a home at Newport Beach and are today preparing to leave Upland and reside at the beach city.

In the interests of Mrs. Atwood's health, the change is being made, it was said. The new home is at 106 Thirtieth street.

The pioneer local family will move to Newport within a few weeks. Frequent trips will be made to Upland and the couple will still be active in community work.

Asmall boy, sitting next to a haughty dame in a crowded street car, kept sniffling in a most annoying manner.

"Young man, have you a handkerchief?" theh woman finally demanded.

The small boy looked at her for a moment and then replied, indignantly, "Yes, ma'am, but I don't lend it to strangers."

Local Hoopsters End Championship Season

An indication that Chaffey will get additional material for its athletic teams from Upland is seen in the championship record of the ninth grade basketball team which closed its season Monday with a victory of 22 to 12 over Fontana.

All teams from Fontana to Ontario have been defeated by this aggregation by wide margins and these players will attend Chaffey next year as sophomores.

The eighth grade team has a couple of games on the remaining schedule. At Ontario Wednesday, the local group was defeated.

"Sunkist for Shanghai! There's a thrill in that!"

"AND it's more than the thrill of realizing that people in the Orient and Australia and Europe are nearly as familiar with the Sunkist brand as we are. There's pride in it—pride in this far-reaching example of the aggressive marketing spirit of our Exchange—and in the organization that makes it possible.

"These shiploads sent to foreign ports are only a drop in the bucket now. But they are growing in importance year by year. There will come a time when we need this extra outlet. And when it comes these distant markets will have been surveyed and pioneered and educated to use California citrus fruits and to favor the Sunkist brand.

"I'm proud that we are doing this sort of thing today—before it's really necessary. But it's just what you would expect from an organization that has always looked ahead in its members' interests—to make it increasingly certain that we Exchange growers always will average the highest returns on our crops."

* * * * * *

The facts are that less than ten years ago fifty thousand boxes of California citrus fruits were a big year's export volume to Europe. In the last year of heavy production the California Fruit Growers Exchange alone sold a million boxes through its European office and an additional, substantial volume to countries bordering the Pacific. Market surveys and experience in foreign countries have made these shipments possible—and a great, new field for profitable expansion has been opened up. Growing export trade is another reason why three out of four growers know that one big cooperative is best suited to handle the California citrus crop.

* * * * * *

Interested non-member growers—Learn the facts. The manager of your nearest District Exchange or Exchange Association will be glad to answer your questions and acquaint you with the many reasons why over 75% of California and Arizona citrus growers find Exchange membership profitable. Or write, Growers Service Bureau, Box 530, Station C, Los Angeles, California.

WHAT THE EXCHANGE IS: The California Fruit Growers Exchange is a non-profit organization of more than 12,500 citrus fruit growers, producing over 75% of the California and Arizona citrus crop, operated by and for them on a cooperative basis. Its object is to develop the national and international market for its Oranges, Lemons and Grapefruit, and to provide a marketing organization that will sell the fruit of its members most advantageously and at least expense. Receipts from sales, less only actual cost of operation, are returned to growers. The annual report of John P. Coy, county agricultural commissioner, contains figures that should make San Bernardino county people feel good—and which place the county as one of the few "white spots" for the year 1930. This county's citrus fruits last year brought $27,344,398, while agricultural products were valued at $35,484,104, the latter including grapes in the sum of $2,367,575, and alfalfa at $1,248,465.

A total of 19,424 acres planted to grain hay yielded only half as much money as the 15,118 acres in the county planted to alfalfa hay. The large returns from grapes were the crops of 26,148 acres, which includes the world's largest vineyard in the west end of San Bernardino county.

Navel oranges from 29,662½ acres last year produced 6,931 cars of fruit, which enriched San Bernardino county citriculturists in the sum of $13,999,247, and there are yet 1,000 acres of young navel trees that soon will come into bearing. Valencias from 8,815½ acres produced 2,264½ cars, that brought $5,959,253 to growers in this county; and this acreage does not include 365 in young Valencia trees. Other varieties of oranges from 1,873½ acres filled 379 cars that were sold for $954,584. Oranges sold "loose" locally brought $882,880 more to local orange growers.

Lemons in San Bernardino county filled 2,219½ cars, that were marketed for $3,645,379 last year, and these were from 4,593 acres. There are 51 acres not yet bearing fruit.

Grapefruit acreage in the county totals 1,840 in bearing trees and 187½ in young trees, and the yield totaled 848.4 cars, which paid the growers $1,903,055.

Citrus carloads are figured at 460 boxes of oranges and grapefruit to the standard car, and 350 boxes of lemons to the car.

Segregating the orange shipments into districts, Redlands topped the list with 862,396 boxes of navels and 292,085 boxes of Valencias. Crafton shipped 517,705 boxes of navels, and 36,342 boxes of Valencias. Highland shipped 457,154 boxes of navels, and 106,606 boxes of Valencias. Upland shipped 407,354 boxes of navels, and 163,867 boxes of Valencias.

Ontario-Chino shipped 307,315 boxes of navels, and 150,183 Valencias. Bryn Mawr, 217,131 navels, 80,792 Valencias; Rialto-Bloomington, 166,679 navels, 102,075 Valencias; Cucamonga, 122,401 navels, 53,627 Valencias; Colton-Grand Terrace 96,337 navels, 38,426 Valencias; Fontana 17,282 navels, 11,034 Valencias, and Etiwanda 16,574 navels, 6,616 Valencias.

These figures are packed boxes shipped, and do not include the entire crop grown in these districts.

No doubt one of the unusual items in comparison with other sections of the country is honey. Two million pounds of extracted honey sold for $140,000, while 10,800 pounds of comb honey returned the producers $2,160. Package bees brought $6,800 and the total of queen bees sold returned $3590.

Track Prospects For Season Bright

Due to the number of experienced men out for track, Chaffey's prospects in the C. B. L. are good this eyar.

In the shot put Dave Meek is doing better than 50 feet. Last year his record was 49 feet 8 inches. Ward is putting the shot about 46 feet.

Bob Graber is clicking better than ever on the discus. He won the C. B. L. discus throw when he was freshman, and again when he was a junior.

In the mile, Brown, who won the C. B. L. mile run last year, is showing old time form. Other milers are Dowding, Broyles and Smith.

The pole vault is the weakest spot in the track team due to the inexperienced men for this event.

Baker and Graber are negotiating the high and low sticks in great shape.

Adams, Hobbs and Forester are the shining lights of the quarter mile.

Meek is topping the 6 foot bar in high jump. Close behind him are Gunstream, Brest and Bigley.

Brest is bettering his last year's broad jump record by about a foot.

In all there are about one hundred men out for track.

Waste Water Enough to Irrigate 75,000 Acres, Expert Says

It is claimed by Engineer J. Ralph Shoemaker of Claremont, that 75,000 acres of citrus fruits could be readily irrigated by the sewer water now running to waste in the ocean.

He further held that as people do not throw away their soiled shirts after having worn them once, so it is unnecessary to discard water, that needs only to go through a purifying process to make it every bit as valuable for irrigation as in its pristine state.

Anti-Smudge Bill Is in Legislature

Klyde Young, secretary of the anti-smudge committee, announced that Assemblyman Emory Arnold of the 63rd district has introduced in the legislature a bill making it unlawful to use heaters that create smudge sufficient to be a menace to health.

The bill may be written or amended at the second session of the legislature, Secretary Young said.

It will not affect heaters that do not create smudge, he said.

"We will endeavor to have the bill in its final form give full protection to the people who have been suffering for years as a result of the smudge," he declared.
